Over-the-Garden-Wall

The Kelloggs North Granby, Conn.

To Our Customers

Friends, this year we come to you with just one wish—a wish for Victory. We must be frank with all of you—our hearts are not quite in the garden, as they have always been in the past—our hearts are on the battle-fronts—but our souls are still imbued with the beauty and goodness of this very earth that makes America. To bring our hearts and souls together, we have a plan. For all the plants we sell we would like to be paid in war stamps or defense bonds. We would feel then that both you and we of Over the Garden Wall were doing just our little bit extra for Uncle Sam and the Boys at the Front.

We used to say "An Investment in a Matchless Flower is the Best Investment of All." Today we all say "An investment in Freedom is Priceless." So, combine these two grandest investments—Beauty and Freedom, by making purchases in Stamps or a Bond—and we will keep and honor these Investments until they mature in ten years. If you prefer to pay by check or cash, be assured, we will accept it.

Make Bonds payable to "Willard M. Kellogg; or Grace H. Kellogg."

INTRODUCING

CONNOQUEENESS — (Pillow '43) A blend of the loveliest shades of cream yellow and rose pink. The golden heart of the flower seems to burst out from the orange beard into waves of softest pastel sunset shades. The slightly ruffled, firmly domed standards are in excellent proportion to the wide semi-flaring gracefully waving falls. The hardiness is tested, and the substance seems especially good in such delicately toned flowers. 36 in. Net $12.50.

ORANGE GLOW (Cassebeer '43). We quote from October '42 AIS Bulletin: "This resembles one of its parents, Radiant, to some extent, but is larger, taller, and has more orange and copper about it. It seems to be a good grower, has nice form and a good stalk." (J. E. Wills) And another, "I consider this one of the finest copper blends; a very bright color and smooth finish." (W. J. McKee) The standards well rounded and touching have a great depth of glowing copper, tint-gold throughout. The rounded falls of burnished copper semi-flare, and the wide golden orange haft sets off the bright orange beard. 35 in. Net $12.50.

These Introductions are NET. But if you would like them both we offer them for a $25.00 War Bond. ($18.75 made out to "Willard M. Kellogg; or Grace H. Kellogg").
